When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had a heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I have stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day,
Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day.
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay,
And come in the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.

OBITUARY

Richard (Dick) A. Webster passed away peacefully at home at the age of 91. He was born in Buffalo, New York on September 6, 1933 to Frank and Edith Webster. He was the second of five children. He was raised in San Diego, California and graduated from San Diego Union Academy in 1949, Portland State University in 1984. He retired from Portland Oregon Corps of Engineers after 34 years

Dick was the ""go-to"" guy for anything that needed fixing, problem-solving was his forte, and nothing made him happier than helping others. He loved woodworking, biking, remodeling his house and volunteering at his church. After retirement, he and Virginia made memories all across the northwest on many trips.

He is survived by his wife Virginia; his children, and their spouses: Rick & Sandie Webster, Cheryl Nichols, grandchildren: Blayne, Melissa, Carly, Alyse; great-grandchildren: Mike, Chris, Brooklyn, Joey, Doc, Evelyn, Jaden; great-great-grandson: Hiro; siblings, Jane from San Diego, CA, Frank Webster, as well as other extended family. Preceded in death by; siblings: Myra Cao, Gene Webster, former wife: MaryAnn (Coon) Webster.
